discretion to accept smaller or larger contributions in exceptional circumstances. The subject matter can involve any branch of law. Interdisciplinary write-ups will also be welcomed as long as the submission also deals effectively with the legal aspects of the research problem.

3. PREPARE YOUR PAPER BEFORE STYLING

Before you begin to format your paper, first write and save the content as a separate text file. Keep your text and graphic files separate until after the text has been formatted and styled. Finally, complete content and organizational editing before formatting.

3.1. Abbreviations and Acronyms (Subheading)

Define abbreviations and acronyms when they are used first time in the text, even after they have been defined in the abstract. Abbreviations such as IEEE, SI, MKS, CGS, ac, dc, and rms do not have to be defined. Do not use abbreviations in the title or heads unless they are unavoidable.

Insert figures and tables after they are cited in the text. The table caption is expected to be written in the following format.

Use 10 point Times New Roman for Table and Figure captions. Use words rather than symbols or abbreviations when writing Figure axis labels to avoid confusing the reader. As an example, write the quantity “Magnetization”, or “Magnetization, M”, not just “M”. If including units in the label, present them within parentheses. Do not label axes only with units. In the example, write “Magnetization (A/m)” or “Magnetization {A[m(1)]}”, not just “A/m”. Do not label axes with a ratio of quantities and units. For example, write “Temperature (K)”, not “Temperature/K”. Figure caption is expected to be written in following format. Use sequence number “(1)”, “(2)”, etc in case of multiple figures starting from left or upper side based on the figures’ position.

3.3. Listing

Make list either in circular bullet, or roman number list. You can keep the following format:

- List 1
- List 2
- List 3

or,

- I. List 1
- II. List 2
- III. List3

4. CONCLUSIONS

A conclusion may review the main points of the paper. It should be very precise containing results, and findings can be pointed out using listing formats.

The manuscript can be submitted through the publication section of the website <http://uits.edu.bd/>→research→publication.

5. RECOMENDATIONS

This section is optional, if in case you have any suggestion or recommendation after your study or analytical findings.

6. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Persons or organizations those who have contribution (generally less creditable than an author of the paper) in the work can be mentioned in this section (if needed).

First A. Author and the other authors may include biographies at the end of regular papers. Biographies are often not included in conference-related papers. This author became a Member (M) of IAENG. The first paragraph may contain a place and/or date of birth (list place, then date). Next, the author's educational background is listed. The degree should be listed with type of degree in what field, which institution, city, state or country, and year degree was earned. The author's major field of study should be lower-cased.

The second paragraph uses the pronoun of the person (he or she) and not the author's last name. It lists work experience, including summer and fellowship jobs. Job titles are capitalized. The current job must have a location; previous positions may be listed without one. Information concerning previous publications may be included. Try not to list more than three books or published articles. The format for listing publishers of a book within the biography is: title of book (city, state: publisher name, year) similar to a reference. Current and previous research interests ends the paragraph.

The third paragraph begins with the author's title and last name (e.g., Dr. Smith, Prof. Jones, Mr. Kajor, Ms. Hunter). List any memberships in professional societies other than the IAENG. Finally, list any awards and work for committees and publications. If a photograph is provided, the biography will be indented around it. The photograph is placed at the top left of the biography. Personal hobbies will be deleted from the biography.
