BA (Hons) in English

Vision and Mission:

The Department of English at UITS has been tirelessly dedicated to present an enlightened and humane generation in front of the country since its inauguration. Molding our students into a complete scholar' activity taking part in our country's development is our mission and vision. We are committed to ensuring a better future for our students by guiding them on the journey involving hard work, honesty and creativity. The Department of English, UITS believes in the motto that hard work backed by good intention can make miracles happen.

Program Objectives:

- ❖ To develop communicative skills of the students in the use of idiomatic English and the capability of expressing ideas and thoughts in English by reinforcing the skills of speaking, listening, reading and writing for communicative interaction.
- ❖ To introduce the understanding of different cultures and their philosophies as expression of human values within historical and social context to establish 'self' as global representative.
- ❖ To stimulate a greater appreciation of language as an aesthetic medium and the artistic principles that shape literary work.
